

A big thank you to everyone who took part and donated to the NSPCC Number Day on Friday 7th February.

Westfield school Dressed up for Digits and raised £52. 80 from spare change being donated.

Classes took part in many different number related activities throughout the day including a number hunt to find the hidden treasure, colour by numbers, number songs and role play shopping.

