

Squirrel class news

During the last week of term Squirrel Class had a busy week learning about Valentines day. We explored all things red.

This was through sensory art using shaving foam and paint, texture exploring in messy play discussing our feelings as well as making cards for our families and making cakes.

