

World Book Day was a wonderful success. This day is such an important event in our school's calendar. The day encourages students to read and can inspire, educate and connect.

So many students brought books into school to exchange during our busy book swap. We also had some great book characters represented around school, including the Super Mario Brothers, many Disney Princesses and Superheroes!

