

THANK YOU to everyone who supported our recent Macmillan Coffee afternoon... whether that was baking, sending in cakes, attending the event or donating to this very worthy cause.

Students in Woodpecker Class were extremely busy and helped to run the event by setting up, serving cakes, taking orders for hot drinks, cleaning tables, making hot drinks, washing up and chatting to our guests.

In total, the event raised £71.80!

