

A huge thank you to the PTFA for funding our new reading scheme materials. Rhino readers is phonics-based reading scheme designed to match how children learn sounds in school which is closely linked to our phonics teaching of Twinkl phonics. Students will read these texts at school and at home to support and develop their reading skills.

The PTFA have also funded the purchase of the entire collection of bag books that provide storytelling using multi-sensory books.

