

The annual celebration was to champion the joy of reading no matter what age you are! Students and staff dressed up as book characters and held a book swap in the hall for the afternoon. It was a chance to spotlight and celebrate reading for pleasure and support the importance of reading.

